4. Place small stack of 10 cards on top of shuffled deck

FAQ

The term "Other Player" is represented by the hero deck. For example, if the text says each "other player" KO's a card or discards a card it would actually trigger the top card of the hero deck being KO'd or cycled to the bottom.

You place your 5 heroes on your HQ normally during setup but you don't do step 4 on the first turn.

GAMEPLAY

HERO DECK GAMEPLAY

HQ NEW RECRUITS: At start of round you'll be drawing one new hero card to add to HQ. The new hero card goes in the rightmost spot of HQ and pushes all existing cards to your left. The card in the leftmost spot is then pushed out of HQ and removed from the game. This keeps the cards available in HQ fresh and puts a timer on how long you have to recruit before a hero is deployed to fight other evils invading the city! SKIP THIS STEP ON THE FIRST ROUND.

HQ REFILL: Per the rules, refill HQ after recruiting a hero or a villain triggered KO. But instead of refilling the spot the card was removed from, place the new card in the rightmost spot of HQ and slide all other cards to your left. HQ operates identical to the villain city track when new heroes are added.

VILLAIN DECK GAMEPLAY

When drawing from the villain deck at the start of each round draw TWO cards instead of one.

BYSTANDER DISCARD

A rescued bystander from your victory pile can be discarded from play to prevent ONE new villain card from being drawn at the start of each round. Discard the bystander before drawing from the villain deck. MAX 1 DISCARD PER ROUND.

FINAL SHOWDOWN!

After foiling the plans of the mastermind and defeating the 4th tactic card, you must have one final showdown against the mastermind leader card for the ultimate KO and victory! The final showdown works just like the official variant in the rules but you'll instead be comparing your new 6 card total to the mastermind's strength plus his 4 defeats. Essentially, your combo'd (recruit + attack) card total must equal or exceed his strength + 4 for the ultimate victory and to prevent his escape!
